 NOTE: EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT FINDING

7 "F9GDCBG9 HC 7 CFF97 HJ 9 57 HCB fWca d YW R YgWjcb VYck L"

(NOTE: There must be objective evidence submitted to support items 14-22. Objective evidence is information that is verifiable and shows that the statement being asserted is true. This is usually a record but can be other items as long as it proves the statement being asserted is true. For example, if in order to show a fix to a finding, Company "A" trained their staff on counterfeit parts, then objective evidence is the training record and remember the training record can be a company created training record. Evidence can be typed or pasted into form but typically it is supplied as attached documents.)
